

Funky Plastic Offspring dethrone Balco Boys for National Championship

(June 25, 2011 – Skokie, IL) Mishawaka, Indiana's 'Funky Plastic Offspring' won the 2011 National Whiffleball Championship today, defeating the defending world and national champion 'Balco Boys' 5-3.

The 'Offspring,' the 2007 world champs, easily won their four game morning pool, going 4-0 and outscoring the competition 58-2. They then bested 'Son of a Pitch' out of Indianapolis, and three-time world champion, Munster, Indiana's 'Club Ripped,' before taking down the two-time world champs, 'Balco.'

The final four were all former world champions from Indiana. For more information on the world championship in Mishawaka, IN on July 23, go to www.whiffleball.org.
