SKOKIE PARK DISTRICT

Celebrates 85 Years...

Now in Living Color!

About this Program Guide Series

As the Skokie Park District celebrates its 85th Anniversary in 2013, we are proud to roll out the district's first full-color seasonal program guides. This year's guides will feature a full-color retro look, celebrating the district's rich history, largely from the 1940s to the 1970s, when color was taking off in the movies, in magazine advertising and on television. Some of the images (black-and-white and color) contained in this year's four guides have been pulled from the district's photo archives, thanks to the Skokie Heritage Museum and the Skokie Historical Society.

About the Cover

This season's cover features a 1940 photo of the Niles Township High School girls' synchronized swimming team, posing at their annual water carnival. In 1960, Skokie residents continued to swim at the park district's new Oakton Community Pool, renovated in 1999 into a state-of-the-art water park, renamed Skokie Water Playground.

Your Guide to Summer Fun!

With a warm sun on Skokie faces, flowers blooming in the parks, adults and kids exploring and learning, and special events happening all over town, the summer of 2013 promises to be a summer to remember here at the Skokie Park District!

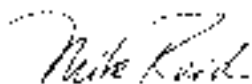

The district's most action-packed season officially kicks off on May 18 and 19, when Oakton Park will host more than 30,000 attendees at the 23rd Annual Skokie Festival of Cultures, a two-day celebration of Skokie's ethnic diversity, including Binny's International Beer Tasting. That same weekend the Skatium Ice Arena will host its three-day, 40th Annual Ice Show, with performances by the area's future stars of tomorrow.

On June 2, residents and their dogs will celebrate Woofstock 2013, a '60s-style party at Pooch Park, located within Channelside Park. On June 29-30, get ready to play in the 34th Annual World Wiffle® Ball Championship, the nation's oldest and largest wiffleball tournament, offering kids – and kids-at-heart – a chance to fulfill their big league dreams. In July and August, check out the district's Summer Concerts and Movies in the Park, Pancake Breakfast in the Woods, golf tournaments and pool parties, the July 4th Parade and 3-D Fireworks Festival, and Skokie's Backlot Bash – this year headlined by The English Beat and Tributosaurus as Kool and the Gang.

Finally, you can also now purchase season Pool Passes to both of our water parks at great discount prices. While visiting the Skokie Water Playground, be sure to drop by the Exploritorium, now featuring its new Engineering Mega Station.

So, whether you are a golf enthusiast, a child lacing up ice skates for the first time, an adult looking for a great workout facility, or just need to take a plunge in one of our great pools, we look forward to helping you find new ways to fill your free time this summer. Please check us out, either in person, or online at www.SkokieParks.org.

Have a safe and fun summer!

It is each team manager's responsibility to ensure his or her team's knowledge of the rule book. Rule books can be obtained at the athletics office at Weber or by sending an e-mail to rdeleonardis@skokieparks.org. Please provide your name, your team name, a daytime phone number and a complete mailing address.
