

Holi: Festival of Colours

Main Stage, Saturday at 6 p.m.

Skokie Festival of Cultures, Oakton Park, Skokie, IL, May 19, 2018

Holi “Festival of Colours,” is a spring festival celebrated across the Indian subcontinent as well as internationally, signifying the arrival of spring, and for many, a festive day to meet others, play and laugh, and to repair broken relationships.

After the Skokie Festival of Cultures’ Indian cultural performances on the main stage at 5 p.m., Holi will begin at 6 p.m., at which time attendees who choose to participate will throw powdered colors in the air or playfully smear them on others. Anyone and everyone within the Holi designated boundaries is fair game, friend or stranger, rich or poor, man or woman, children and elders.

View this video for a look at how the “Festival of Colours” plays out around the world!