Practice days and times are scheduled according to the availability of each team’s volunteer coaching staff. You should expect a few practices throughout the season, and several before the season. The season begins in early April thru mid-June. Most teams play an average of two, or three games per week during the regular season. We have many games in all baseball divisions that must fit into limited field and time slots. Because of these constraints, be aware that your team’s games can be scheduled for any day of the week, EXCEPT FRIDAY EVENING AND SATURDAY.
