FootGolf Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays • 4 p.m. until dusk

Now families can enjoy a new activity together at the Weber Park Golf Course. Try the newest golf sport –FootGolf. Instead of using golf clubs, you kick a soccer ball for a faster paced game. Weber Park Golf Course is now offering FootGolf three days a week on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 4 p.m. until the course closes at dusk. The game is played much like a traditional game of golf with players kicking a soccer ball from the tee to the hole; however the soccer ball is kicked into a 21-inch hole. Players may bring their own #5 soccer ball or rent one from Weber Park Golf Course. Casual, tennis or turf shoes are preferred. Rubber- or steel-cleat shoes will not be allowed in order to protect the golf course.

Weber Park Golf Course now home to FlingGolf!

Available during regular golf course hours

FlingGolf is easy to learn, the rules are simple and the equipment consists of a single FlingStick. Kids love it. Players fling the golf ball along the course and putt with the face of the FlingStick. FlingGolf is a dynamic new sport that can be played alongside golfers on the course. (Think snowboarding and skiing.) It's fun, inexpensive and easy to learn. Instead of hitting the ball with a club, the player flings the golf ball with a patent-pending FlingStick. Players may bring their own FlingStick or rent one from Weber Park Golf Course. Casual, tennis or golf shoes are preferred.
